

GCSE Press Release - Ms Wilson

Thursday 22nd August 2024

The staff were excitedly waiting for our Year 11 students to arrive this morning knowing just how well they had done in their GCSEs. We are delighted to announce that Chessington School's Year 11 students have achieved another cracking set of GCSE results.

Our results and progress have risen again on the last set of public examinations. This is truly a mark of the great work of the teachers and families, but most importantly our students over these past years. Well done class of 2024.

Our students have worked exceptionally hard both inside and outside of the classroom and this hard work has certainly paid off. We are excited to welcome some of them back to our Sixth Form and know that the others are set to flourish at their chosen destination. We wish them the very best in their next steps.

A number of individual performances have been exceptional - with students such as David Coy, Luka Russell, Kai Chit Lee, Vasilina Kutsinova and Yahya Bin Mansoor consistently achieving the highest grades. This is fantastic and well deserved; particularly with National picture seeing a decrease in the top grades.

As well as this, what always gives me the biggest smile is the consistent progress that our students make irrespective of their starting point. Students such as Henry Addis, Will Johnson, Finally Morito, Guupreet Kaur and Chloe Hall have made outstanding progress; they have achieved brilliantly. We pride ourselves on adding value to the academic progress of our students and when it is so clearly seen it is incredibly rewarding.

This broad progress from all of our students of all backgrounds demonstrates that we are a truly inclusive school that embraces our 'Every Child Every Day' ethos successfully. So, very well done Year 11. You truly deserve the success you have worked so hard for. We look forward to witnessing your successes over the years. Here is to another excellent year ahead at Chessington.

Quotes - GCSE Press Release

“The highlight of my first year at Chessington School has been today - it gave me immense pleasure to see all the hard work of the students and staff pay off with so many delighted Year 11s celebrating with their parents. It has been a privilege to work with such fantastic students and wish them the best in their future endeavours whether that is staying with us or moving on to study or work elsewhere.”

Mr Smith Deputy Head

“Another excellent year at Chessington School. I am proud of course of those that got the very best grades but also admire those who worked tirelessly and made exceptional progress irrespective of their starting points. Well done to you all.
